FREIGHT HINDERED FIREMEN.
Department and Apparatus Held Up at Milk Street Crossing.

The Willimantic fire department was called out at 12:40 o'clock Wednesday morning when an alarm was pulled in from Box 53 at the corner of Valley and Jackson streets for a fire in the cellar of a four tenement house situated on Taylor's court, owned by the John Kilbourne estate.

The department was held for nearly ten minutes at the Milk street railroad crossing by a freight train on the New Haven system. Chief Thomas P. Foley was unable to find any member of the train crew so that the train might be broken and permit the apparatus to proceed to the fire, but finally managed to locate one man who was somewhat stupid and even intimated that he did not care whether the train was broken or not. The train was broken at last and allowed the firemen and apparatus to get to the fire, that was caused by a defective chimney and did not cause much damage.
